HCCF announces 2020 Executive Officers

GREENFIELD, Ind. (February 26, 2020) – The Hancock County Community Foundation (HCCF) announces its 2020 Executive Board. Together these individuals have volunteered 29 years of their time and expertise to various board roles and committee memberships. HCCF is grateful for their commitment to philanthropy and their dedication to serve our community.

Jan Viehweg is a Certified Association Executive and currently serves as Project Manager for Emerald Consulting. She is a member of the Indiana and American Societies of Association Executives. She is a founding board member of the Mt. Vernon Education Foundation. She joined the HCCF board in 2015, and during her service at HCCF, she led the Grants Committee as Chair for two years. She has also served the Strategic Planning, Board Development and Gift VII Planning committees. Jan joins the Executive Board as Chair for 2020 and 2021.

Ryan Hammons is a Controller at Nina Pulliam Charitable Trust. He is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Indiana CPA Society. He joined the HCCF board in 2015. During his service at HCCF, he served on the Grants Committee, chaired the Scholarship Committee for two years, and has lent his expertise to the Finance Committee. He has joined the Executive Board as Vice-Chair for 2020 and 2021.

Terry Tillett is a Financial Advisor at Tillett Financial. Terry is in his third decade in the financial services industry. He has lived his entire life in Indiana and has a deep affinity with the state and our community. He joined the HCCF board in 2015. During his service at HCCF, he has served on the Legacy Properties Board, Professional Advisor Council, and continues to chair the Finance Committee. He joins the Executive Board as Board Treasurer for 2020 and 2021.

Sandy Miller is a Retired President of FGS, an Anthem organization. Sandy is a member of TriKappa Sorority and serves as the Chair for Hancock Regional Hospital Foundation board. Sandy joined the HCCF board in 2013. During her service at HCCF, she has served on the Imagination Library Steering Committee, served as the Women's Fund Chair for six years, and has joined the Executive Board as Secretary for 2020 and 2021.

Josh Daugherty is a Vice President Wealth Management Client Advisor for The Huntington National Bank. He serves on the board for Hancock Regional Hospital. Josh joined the HCCF board in 2012, but prior to joining the board, he was a scholarship recipient in 2003, 2004, and 2005 of the Earl J. Brooks and Irene B. Brooks Scholarship Endowment Fund. During his service at HCCF, he has served on the GIFT VII Planning Committee, Scholarship Committee, Education Committee and served as the Board Chair in 2018 and 2019. Josh remains on the Executive Board as the Chair Emeritus and is the current Board Development Committee Chair.

HCCF provides philanthropic leadership by encouraging giving, learning, community pride and civic engagement. Working with caring individuals, families, and organizations to create or grow existing permanent endowment funds is critical to the organization's mission. These funds generate income that is distributed in the form of grants and scholarships to enrich and enhance life in Hancock County, as well as support the donor's favorite charitable causes, both at home and afar forever. HCCF has granted millions of dollars since its inception in 1992.
