New Directors Join Hancock County Community Foundation Board

GREENFIELD, Ind. (January 26, 2017) – The Hancock County Community Foundation board of directors has elected three new members.

Darvin Fenter

Darvin Fenter is the retired president of Fenter Construction, Inc. and a representative of Sugar Creek Township. Fenter will serve on the finance committee and bring his extensive construction, operations and property management expertise to the Legacy Properties Board, the governing body that oversees real estate owned by the community foundation.

Darvin has a wife, Judy, and four children, Angie, Chris, Rob and Bethany.

Dr. Harold Olin

Dr. Harold Olin is the superintendent of Greenfield-Central School Corporation and a representative of Center Township. He joins the board after serving on the grants committee for two years helping to select grant recipients, and he will continue to participate in that capacity.

Dr. Olin currently serves on the Greenfield-Central School Foundation board, Sister Cities of Greenfield board, the Greenfield Chamber of Commerce board, and the United Way of Central Indiana advisory board. He has a wife, Lori, and three children, Caleb, Joshua and Leah.

Rick Wittgren

Rick Wittgren is a partner with BKD, LLP and a representative of Blue River Township. He will serve on the scholarship committee, helping make selections for HCCF's endowed scholarships and the Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship.

Wittgren currently serves on the Boys & Girls Club of Hancock County board. He has a wife, Natalie, and two children, Hannah and Conner.

After years of dedicated service, Tim Clark, Fred Powers, P. Jon Miller and Adam Schultz left the board in 2016.

HCCF works with caring individuals, families, and organizations to create or grow existing permanent funds called endowments. These funds generate income that is distributed in the form of grants and scholarships to enrich and enhance life in Hancock County, as well as support the donor's favorite charitable causes, both at home and afar forever. HCCF has granted over $11.4 million since its inception in 1992.
